

The Change Companies®

A leader in promoting positive lifestyle changes.

January 21, 2011

Wellness Redemption and Rehabilitation Program (WRRP), Inc.
1555 E. Flamingo Road, Suite 158
Las Vegas, NV 89119

The Change Companies® appreciates the opportunity to partner with Wellness Redemption and Rehabilitation Program (WRRP), Inc. to support the positive life changes that they are helping their clients make. WRRP's mission to redeem, rehabilitate and restore lives aligns well with The Change Companies. We are confident that our evidence-based behavioral curricula and implementation training will assist WRRP, Inc. improve the condition of those they serve.

The Change Companies® is a national publishing, consulting, training and video company that works with leading industry experts to develop effective, evidence-based materials that assist individuals in making positive life change. We have served over 20 million individuals. Our products and services are used in the fields of prevention, treatment, justice services, mental health, impaired driving and healthcare. Our mission is to put the most effective tools at the lowest possible cost, into the hands of the end user who is working to make positive life changes.

Based on over 20 years of collaboration and development with internationally recognized leaders in behavioral change, The Change Companies® Interactive Journaling® approach offers a change-focused, participant-driven resource for effectively guiding targeted populations through the process of life change. This innovative approach enhances the therapeutic engagement between providers of service and participants while building consistency and confidence in the modality being used.

The Change Companies® looks forward to working with WRRP, Inc. to serve individuals in their exploration and engagement in life changes.

Sincerely,

Sherry Newsom
President
The Change Companies